We devote our time, talent and treasures to build the Kingdom of God.
We love and serve the Lord by serving one another.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - OCTOBER 12TH, 2025

One of them...returned, glorifying God. (Luke 17:15)

Jesus had healed ten people afflicted with leprosy, but only one of them returned to give him thanks. We might wonder why the others didn't come back. Maybe they couldn't connect the dots: God himself had healed them on their way. It seems that only this one person - a Samaritan - realized that he had been in the presence of the divine. And he didn't just say, "Thank you," either. He fell at Jesus' feet and worshipped God "in a loud voice" (Luke 17:15).

This can be a model for us. Our own gratitude can lead us to worship the One who has given us abundant life, both now and forever.

We can worship the Lord in many ways, but today, let's imitate the Samaritan in today's Gospel:

He glorified God in a loud voice (Luke 17:15). You can worship the Lord in silent prayer, but giving praise to God out loud expresses your gratitude in a deliberate, concrete way. As your praise reaches the heavens, your heart will be lifted up as well. That's why the psalmist writes, "Bless our God, you peoples; loudly sound his praise" (66:8).

He fell at the feet of Jesus (Luke 17:16). Worship also involves our posture. That's why we stand and kneel at Mass. Maybe you like to pray in your favorite chair each morning. But occasionally, especially when you are offering praise and thanksgiving to the Lord, you might try standing, kneeling, or even lying prostrate on the floor. In all these ways, you are expressing your love and gratitude to the Lord with your body.

At Mass today, sing out your praise! Join the choir "in a loud voice" (Luke 17:15) and worship the Lord with all your heart. Kneel in adoration before the King of kings. Rejoice because the Lord says to you, as he did to the Samaritan, "Your faith has saved you" (17:19).

"Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done wondrous deeds" (Psalm 98:1)."

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY is October 19th.

On this day, the entire Church comes together to support various mission works. This year's theme is

"Missionaries of Hope Among all Peoples"

It reminds individual Christians and the entire Church, the community of the baptized, of our fundamental vocation to be, in the footsteps of Christ, messengers and builders of hope.

The contributions collected October 18th and 19th are crucial for sustaining the Church's mission in over 1,150 territories where the Church is still young or struggling. Historically, the Church in the United States was once a beneficiary of these missionary efforts, and now we have the opportunity to give back and support our brothers and sisters around the globe. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to engage fully in this mission throughout the month.

We are blessed to have 11 people going through the OCIA process.

Please remember them in your prayers.

With prayers and deepest
Sympathy
