

St. Mary Queen of Angels

Pastoral Council

Minutes of the Meeting of April 9, 2019

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Mary Queen of Angels Pastoral Council was held on Tuesday, April 9th at 7:00 pm at the church. Father Michael and the following members were present: Cindy Balthazor, Bruce Heier, Sandy Ochampaugh, Tricia Flax, John Ogle, and Marcia Blundon.

Father Michael led us in our opening prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and were approved.

Financial Council: Father Michael reported that we are still in the black. He also reported that they would be having their upcoming meeting in May, with upcoming maintenance being their primary concern.

Evangelization: Bruce has called or visited with the new parishioners. May or June we will have coffee for our new members.

Liturgy: Marge stated that she is looking forward to lent season. A prayer was suggested.

Family Life: Tricia stated that the Lenten luncheon will be held tomorrow, April 10th. There will be a Vigil reception on Easter Saturday, April 20th.

Education: NTR

Cemetery/Grounds: NTR

Respect for Life: NTR

Stewardship: NTR

Knights: Chris reported that the Knights received the check from the state and it was presented to the Russell County Retarded Citizens. There will be a fish fry this Friday, April 12th from 5:30-7:00. The fish money is going to be donated to CYO. They will donate $100.00 to each child. Chris and Bruce are delegates to the men's conference in Manhattan.

RCCW: Sandy reported that they purchased teal table toppers for the tables and Jane cleaned up the white table clothes. They have long white ones to cover long tables.

They delivered Easter bags to the nursing home with socks, candy, treats, scripture cards, etc. The Welcome box committee created 10 boxes to deliver to the nursing homes to welcome new residents and they were very excited.

The new scholarship committee was formed and Sara Hurla will MC the presentations that will be made on May 5th. Donuts and drinks will be served after mass. There will be a memorial mass on May 9th for grieving mothers held at St. Mary Queen of Angels Parish at 10:30 am. Following mass a light reception will be held in the parish hall.

RCCW donated $2,500 to CYO for their NCYC trip. Sandy also reported that Glenna Letsch is having a fund raiser for a lung replacement. The ladies donated $3,000 to her fund.

New Business: It was brought up that Homestead is interested in having someone come and facilitate a bible study. We need to keep them in mind.

Our next meeting is on May 7th.

Closing prayer was led by Bruce.

Meeting was adjourned.
