Old Business:

- a) Saturday Mass time—Leave as 5:30 for now.
- b) Trip Hazard Solution – Stacy Moore
- c) Sidewalk snow removal – need someone new

New Business:

- a) New front doors—Manhattan company to work on the handicap accessible inner door and outdoor will be updated to metal that looks like wood. No cost estimate provided yet.
- b) Tar in parking lot
- c) $10,000 for the poor—Check received for Helping Hands fund
- d) Church mission—Beverly looking into a few options before determining a date.
- e) CYO – we support and appreciate you—Providing pretzels and drinks for NCYC parent meeting on October 26th. Determine a donation for the group in thanks for past service.
- f) Maintenance Job Description—
- g) Snow Removal—Ask Dustin Dreher regarding snow removal before advertising to parish. Pay would be $50 per hour.
- h) Updated website—Review and advise corrections to Judy.
- i) Cross vs Crucifix—A parishioner has asked why we don't carry a crucifix in the processional; rather than the cross. Fr. Daryl advised it is because a crucifix is already in the sanctuary. If a crucifix was brought in, it would have to be placed behind the wall to prevent duplicity.
- j) Feedback Form/Education— “Ask Parish Council” A recurring column in the bulletin answering questions from parishioners. For example, the cross/crucifix question.
- k) Christmas gift for Parish members—Matthew Kelly Book. 2 options, Gail and Dave will read the books and give recommendations at the November meeting.
